Test Case

| Test Case ID | Software Feature | Steps | Expected | Actual | Passed/ Failed |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| TC1 | Obtain a Balance | 1. Users run the programme.2. Enter their name3. Select option: 3  | Show the default balance amount. | Default balance appears.  | Passed |
| TC2 | Make withdrawal | 1. Users run the programme.2. Enter their name3. Select option: 2  4. Provide the amount to withdraw 5. This should subtract the withdraw amount from the balance | The actual balance of the user is subtracted by the withdrawal amount. | The actual balance of the user is decremented by the withdrawal amount.  Since default balance is 1000 and withdrawal amount is 500, left balance is 500. | Passed |
| TC3 | Deposit money | 1. Users run the programme.2. Enter their name3. Select option: 1  And provide the balance | Balance must be increased by the amount of deposit balance | This sums up the actual balance by the deposited balance | Passed |
| TC4 | Quit Programme | 1. Users run the programme.2. Enter their name3. Select option: 4  | Should quite the programme | The system has quitted the programme  | Passed |